IC 29-1-14-1; All claims against a decedent's estate, other than expense of administration and claims of the United States, and of the state and any subdivision thereof, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated, or unliquidated, founded on contract or otherwise, shall be forever barred against the estate, the personal representative, the heirs, devisees and legatees of the decedent, unless filed with the court in which such estate is being administered within:

1. Three (3) months after the date of the first published notice to creditors, or
2. Three (3) months after the court has revoked probate of a will, in accordance with IC 29-1-7-21, if the claimant was named as a beneficiary in that revoked will; whichever is later.

- a. No claim shall be allowed which was barred by any statute of limitations at the time of decedent's death.

IC 29-1-14-2; If any claim against the decedent be bounded upon any written instrument, alleged to have been executed by him, the original, or a complete copy thereof shall be filed with the statement, unless it is lost or destroyed, in which case its loss or destruction must be stated in the claim, the statement shall set forth all credits and deductions to which the estate is entitled and shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the claimant, his agent or attorney, that the claim, after deducting all credits, set-offs and deductions to which the estate is entitled, is justly due and wholly unpaid, or if not yet due, when it will or may become due, and no claim shall be received unless accompanied by such affidavit; if the claim be secured by a lien on any real or personal property, such lien shall be particularly set forth in such statement, and a reference given to where lien, if of record, will be found.
